Bridegrooms survive a 3-12 Loosing Streak to Win Coover Cup

Season July	Season August	Post-Season September - December

STANDINGS

	W	L	PCT	GB
Bridegrooms	38	32	.543	-
Knickerbockers	38	32	.543	-
Beaneaters	36	34	.514	2.0

Keystones	35	35	.500	3.0
Excelsiors	33	37	.471	5.0
Pioneers	32	38	.457	6.0
Haymakers	32	38	.457	6.0

Henry was beside himself. Did this really happen?

The Bridgrooms, after a June record of 18 wins and 10 losses, continued their march with an 18-8 July to raise their record to 38-32 and capture a tie for 1st place.

Regardless of what happened in August, the 36-18 "run for the top" was in the record books, Henry thought, and he was in a good mood.

The 3 teams he chose as the strongest teams before the season opened were now 3 of the top 4 teams, The 4th team, the Knickerbockers, were a bit of a surprise. Henry had tagged them as the 6th rated team, and they had been doing very well.

Henry wondered how ol' Grey Beard at Jake's place was feeling now?

Mus keep in mind, however, there was only a 6 game spread across all eight teams, and anything could happen with 28 games left. Henry had thought himself into rooting for the Bridegrooms since he had rated them the strongest team – and was hoping they would win the 1st Coover Cup after lifting themselves from the proverbial "grave".

THEY DID IT ! (Kinda)

	W	L	PCT	GB	L10	Strk
Bridegrooms	52	46	.531	-	3-7	L6
Knickerbockers	51	47	.520	1	6-4	L1
Beaneaters	50	48	.510	2	7-3	W4
Pastime Club	49	49	.500	3	5-5	W2
Pioneers	49	49	.500	3	7-3	L1
Haymakers	49	49	.500	3	6-4	W1
Excelsiors	47	51	.480	5	3-7	W1
Keystones	45	53	.459	7	3-7	L2

What a mixed-message finish to the UBA2's first season.

Heading into the last 15 games, the Bridegrooms had a 49-34 record and a 6 game lead over the Knickerbockers at 43-40. Over the last two weeks, the Bridegrooms went 3-12 while the Knickerbockers went 8-7, with both teams losing their last game. The Knicks could have forced a playoff game had they beat the Excelsiors in their last game (but lost 4-3).

Henry could already hear the claims that the Bridegrooms didn't deserve the title, the team that's started 2-14 and finished 3-12; It should have gone to the Knicks.

Although tainted, a game was a game, and the Brides had won by one.

While Omar Moreno (Bridegrooms) deserves mention with 21 strikeouts in 16 games. That projects to 128 for the season.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR AWARD

Tim Treadway's age didn't show very often in his first year. He performed more like a veteran on the hill for the Keystones and today he walked away with the 1901 UBA2 Rookie of the Year Award.

The 22-year-old starter registered a 17-7 record this season in 25 starts. Over 230 innings he gave up 189 hits, struck out 81 and issued 50 walks as he held the opposition to a .220 batting average and fashioned a 1.41 ERA.

He received 8 first place votes, as a unanimous winner. Jose Gonzales of the Beaneaters finished second in voting, while Tanner Chapin of the Keystones finished third.

Tim Treadway - Keystones - 8 - 40

Jose Gonzales - Beaneaters - 0 - 22

Tanner Chapin - Keystones - 0 - 8

Jordan Montano - Excelsiors - 0 - 2

MANAGER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Josh Berry, skipper of the Bridegrooms, was voted 1901 UBA2 Manager of the Year and accepted the award earlier today.

He guided the Bridegrooms to first place with a 52-46 record.

"I'm very happy about this," he said at the press conference, "But I'm more happy about what my boys did on the field. They battled their butts off for me all year. They should get the credit."

JULY AWARDS

Reyes Garners July Batter of the Month Award: Beaneaters

5 STAR, Omar Reyes battered UBA2 pitchers all July and wound up taking home the Batter of the Month Award.

In 25 games, Reyes hit .371 with 2 home runs, 14 RBIs and scored 20 runs. This season Reyes is hitting .335 with 4 home runs.

Treadway Earns UBA2 Top Pitcher Award: Keystones

2½ STAR, Tim Treadway took a much-deserved turn in the spotlight earlier today as he accepted the UBA2 Pitcher of the Month award for July.

The 21-year-old Keystones starter is a relative newcomer to the league, but nonetheless racked up an impressive 5-2 won-lost record in 7 starts. This month he fanned 31 batters in 65 innings and compiled a 0.97 ERA.

Treadway has started 18 times this year, pitched 166 innings, fanned 63 batters and walked 34. His current record is 13 wins and 4 losses with a 1.41 ERA.

Treadway Earns UBA2 Rookie of Month for July: Keystones

2½ STAR, Tim Treadway has become a big fan favorite, especially during the last month when the pitching phenom racked up a 5-2 record, making him the easy choice for July's UBA2 Rookie of the Month Award.

He notched 31 strikeouts in 65 innings as he compiled a 0.97 ERA and held opponents to a .233 batting average.

To date this season Treadway is 13-4 with 18 starts and an ERA of 1.41 with 63 strikeouts in 166 innings.

AUGUST AWARDS

Fein Crowned Top UBA II Hitter in August: Knickerbockers

5 STAR, UBA II Choice for Batter of the Month is Fein: It's a time for celebration in as Randy Fein has just walked away with August's UBA Reimagined Batter of the Month award.

He socked 45 hits in 110 at-bats to put up a .409 batting average, no home runs, 23 RBIs and 19 runs scored.

UBA II Selects Mills August's Best Starter in August: Pioneers

3 STAR, In August, Austin Mills tore through the UBA2 like a seasoned veteran -- quite impressive for a player only 24 years old.

The young starter posted a 6-1 mark and an ERA of 1.14 to earn the Pitcher of the Month award. In 63 innings he collected 25 strikeouts while limiting the opposition to a .201 average.

Sargent UBA II Rookie of Month: Beaneaters

2 STAR, He's only in his debut season, but Jeff Sargent performed more like a veteran on the hill for the Haymakers and walked away with August's UBA2 Rookie of the Month Award in the process.

Last month this young hurler recorded 5 wins and 2 losses in 7 starts. He threw 62 innings, giving up 12 walks, fanning 18 and compiling a 2.18 ERA.

His career record is 14 victories and 10 defeats. Sargent also has struck out 53 batters and compiled a 2.54 ERA.

PITCHER OF THE YEAR AWARD

The spotlight today is on Tim Treadway of the Keystones. He was named the top pitcher in the UBA Reimagined and will be honored with the 1901 Pitcher of the Year Award.

Treadway compiled an impressive 17-7 won-lost mark to capture this year's honor. In 230 innings of work and 25 starts, the Keystones star struck out 81, while giving up 189 hits and 50 walks. He limited opposing batters to a .220 average.

He received 8 first place votes, as a unanimous winner. Austin Mills of the Pioneers finished second in voting, while Jose Gonzales of the Beaneaters finished third.

Excelsiors Trip Keystones in Extras

The Excelsiors and Keystones played an exciting game at Keystones Park.

The Excelsiors topped the Keystones, 4-2, in UBA Reimagined action at Keystones Park. The player of the game was pitcher Jeremy Kucera. The Excelsiors now have a record of 23-30 with the win over .

Kucera, a native of Rockville, Maryland, was dealing all game. He kept hitters off-balance, while giving the Excelsiors 15 quality innings. Kucera threw 163 pitches, allowing 7 hits and striking out 4.

"I found a nice groove out there," said Kucera.

Big Day with Bat: Reyes 5-for-5

It's not something you read about in the sports pages every day -- a 5-for-5 day. For many, it might come around only once in a career -- and for Omar Reyes, it came around today. The 34-year-old left fielder scattered hits all over Pastime Club Park to pace the Beaneaters to a 11-7 victory over the Pastime Club.

"He hit some good pitches against us," he said. "In fact, according to our scouting reports, Reyes hit several that he is not supposed to be able to hit."

Omar Reyes tripled in the 1st, doubled in the 3rd, hit an RBI triple in the 5th, hit a solo-shot off Anthony Bonamoni in the 6th, singled in the 8th and walked in the 9th.

This year Reyes is hitting .338 with 6 home runs and 49 RBIs in 88 games played. He also boasts an OBP of .403 with 38 walks and 69 runs scored.

Yano Delivers Clutch At-Bat for Walk-Off Win in 15th Inning

The Keystones topped the Haymakers, 3-2, in UBA Reimagined action at Keystones Park. The player of the game was pitcher Tanner Chapin who pitched all 15 innings.. In 15 innings, Chapin surrendered 11 hits, while striking out 9 and walking 1. He allowed 2 runs.

The Keystones got a big at-bat from first baseman Toru Yano. For the game, Yano went 3-7 with 3 singles. In the bottom of the 15th, with the bases loaded, he stroked a run-scoring single. His 77th hit of the season gave a 3-2 lead.

HITTER OF THE YEAR AWARD

What a way to finish off the year -- being honored with the 1901 Most Valuable Hitter Award in the UBA2. It had already been a very special season for the Beaneater 's Omar Reyes, but today's announcement really put the icing on his cake.

All season long Omar Reyes gave opposing pitchers fits by hitting .336 as he collected 122 hits, 18 doubles, 40 triples, 6 home runs and 52 RBIs.

He received 8 first place votes, as a unanimous winner. Randy Fein of the Knickerbockers finished second in voting, while Manny Martinez of the Bridegrooms finished third.

Knickerbockers, Bridegrooms Make Trade:

Both sides appear content with the trade finalized today that will send 25-year-old 1B Jesus Moreno (2½*) to the Bridegrooms, while the Knickerbockers will receive 25-year-old 2B Eddie Cantu (2½*).

"This is a move that filled a few gaps in our roster," said Jeff Basso, Knickerbockers general manager.

For his part, the Bridegrooms GM said the trade was made "in the best interest of our organization's future." BNN analysts reported that on paper the trade seemed to be a plus for both ball clubs.

Thus far this season Moreno has hit .287 with no home runs, 14 RBIs and scored 15 times.

For the season, Cantu is hitting at a .242 clip with 1 home run, 16 RBIs and has scored 6 runs. He has 23 hits, 8 walks and a .301 on-base percentage.
