

Pacific Coast League II - 1919

1919 PCL2 CHAMPIONS

The 1919 Portland Beavers dominated the season during their march to a 109-69 record. Even with a late 20-3 charge by the Oakland Oaks, they still managed to win it all with a 2 game lead.

Portland Wins Pre-Season Free Agent Challenge

$4,720 Lands 2B Alexander for Beavers

01/14/1919 - The Beavers and Zander Alexander reached an accord earlier today which brings the second baseman to town for 1 year.

Alexander will pocket $4,720 total and is widely expected to contribute significantly to the club's playoff drive.

Portland Fired up over Signing of SP May

01/14/1919 - Rumors of a deal between Mark May and Portland finally bore fruit today as the two sides faced a packed press corps. Beavers officials looked very pleased as they outlined the terms of the new deal.

May will earn $4,380 per year for 1 year, and is expected to make a solid addition to his new club.

Star 2B Jones Settles on Portland

01/14/1919 - The media came away from a press conference announcing 26-year-old Curt Jones as the club's newest second baseman with few unanswered questions.

Jones spoke highly of his teammates and his new employer. Most insiders agree that Jones is a pleasure to work with and is one of the most straightforward young people they've met.

Seattle Makes Big Splash in Free Agency: Signs SP

01/17/1919 - The Indians pulled out all the stops today to announce the signing of starting pitcher Michael Beauregard. The 29-year-old is one of the game's preeminent playmakers and has definitely proven why he was such an attractive signing.

The contract is a 1-year deal worth $4,680.

Vernon Wins RF McCorry Sweepstakes

01/18/1919 - The Vernon Tigers have called a press conference later today to announce the signing of right fielder Melvin McCorry to a 1-year, $5,250 contract.

Both McCorry and the Tigers are said to be very pleased to come to this agreement.

Oakland Wins Lottery for CF Jones

01/23/1919 - Sportswriters questioned the wisdom of the freshly signed pact between Adam Jones and Oakland today. The deal, set at a $4,300 price tag, will run for 1 year.

On the face of it, all is well, though insiders say there could be repercussions in the clubhouse if Jones starts running his mouth as he has been known to in the past.

Angels Win Sweepstakes for RF Mitchell

02/01/1919 - Los Angeles fans could barely contain their jubilation as Homer Mitchell, considered one of the best at his position, opted to sign with the club.

The deal, estimated at $5,080 over 1 year, is seen as a masterstroke for the General Manager's office and could well go down as one of the shrewdest moves in club history.

April AWARDS

Batter of the Month

PCL2 Announces Best Batter Award: Homer Mitchell battered Pacific Coast League 2 pitchers all April and wound up taking home the Batter of the Month Award. "I've been around Pacific Coast League 2 long enough to know you really have to work hard day in and day out to be able to put up this kind of consistency," the 30-year-old Mitchell told reporters. "I put in a lot of work, even on the days I might not take the field, and it's always nice when everything comes together for me like it did this last month." In 28 games, Mitchell hit .361 with no home runs, 23 RBIs and scored 27 runs.

Rookie of the Month

Carter Top of His Class in April: Yes, Keith Carter is just a rookie. But he is a special rookie. Today the 25-year-old Los Angeles starter was awarded the Pacific Coast League 2 Rookie of the Month trophy for his standout performance in April. He dominated the rookie class, registering 5 wins and 1 loss in 6 starts with 24 strikeouts in 58 innings and a 0.93 ERA. Not bad for a first-year man.

Pacific Coast League II - 1919

May AWARDS

Batter of the Month

PCL2's Best Batter Picked: Though his face is weathered and his hands are calloused, José Reyes can still get it done in Pacific Coast League 2. In fact, the 38-year-old right fielder for Los Angeles was named the Pacific Coast League 2 Batter of the Month today after putting up an impressive performance at the plate. In May he batted .413 with 2 home runs, 18 RBIs and 21 runs scored. This year Reyes has collected a .416 batting average to date with 92 hits in 221 at-bats, 31 RBIs, 3 home runs and scored 41 times. He has played in 55 games.

Pitcher of the Month

Beavers Brown May's #1 Pitcher: Despite the number of years he's been in the league, Bill Brown still gets excited when he puts together a quality stretch like he had in May. The 30-year-old starter for Portland was named Pacific Coast League 2 Pitcher of the Month earlier today. He collected 5 wins and no losses with 13 strikeouts in his 5 starts, putting up a fine 2.20 ERA in 45 innings of work. This season-to-date, Brown has fashioned a 5-0 mark and 2.20 ERA in 45 innings. Opposing clubs are batting .233 against him and he has logged 13 strikeouts.

Rookie of the Month

Cook Named PCL2's Best Rookie: For a young man just making his way into the Pacific Coast League 2, Rex Cook has shown incredible poise and confidence over the past month, netting him the coveted Rookie of the Month Award. In May he fashioned a 4-2 mark and a 1.04 ERA. The San Francisco starter struck out 16 in 43.1 innings as he walked 6 and held opposing batters to a .129 average. This year Cook has worked 96.2 innings with 34 strikeouts en route to a 4-7 record and 2.89 ERA.

July AWARDS

Batter of the Month

Portland's Williams Bags PCL2 Batting Award: Seasoned by several years of professional experience, 29-year-old Turner Williams put together a solid offensive month for Portland and was crowned July's top batter in the Pacific Coast League 2. He batted .359 with no home runs, 15 RBIs and 20 runs scored. In his season totals Williams has 4 home runs and a .316 batting average.

Pitcher of the Month

PCL2 Honors July's #1 Pitcher: The Pacific Coast League 2 scribes have selected July's Pitcher of the Month and have awarded the honor to Pat Wise of Portland. He was outstanding on the hill last month and has the numbers to prove it -- a 5-1 record. The Beavers star performer made 6 starts with a 1.96 ERA and surrendered 51 hits in 55 innings. He struck out 16 and walked 19. So far this year Wise has made 23 starts, tossed 200 innings, struck out 69 batters and walked 72. His record is 14-10 with a 3.29 ERA and he has limited opposing teams to a .267 batting average.

Rookie of the Month

PCL2 Selects Rookie Star of the Month: Adam Jones earned July's Rookie of the Month honors in the Pacific Coast League 2 for last month's performance. The boyish Oakland center fielder might be wet behind the ears, but he's proving that he has what it takes to play at this level. Jones hit .277 with 1 home run, 9 RBIs and 19 runs scored this past month on his way to winning the award. For the season Jones is batting .263 with 110 hits and 7 home runs. He has scored 68 times and batted in 55.

August AWARDS

Batter of the Month

PCL2 Announces Best Batter Award: Adam Jones has a lot going for him. The Oakland center fielder just broke into the majors this year and now the Pacific Coast League 2 has just picked him as its top hitter for August. In 27 games last month, this outstanding rookie batted .336 with 4 home runs, 22 RBIs and 21 runs scored. Jones is hitting .278 for the season with 11 home runs, 77 RBIs and 89 runs scored. He has 147 hits in 529 at-bats and played in 135 games.

Pitcher of the Month

Pacific Coast League 2 Picks Best Starter in August: Mark May hated to see August turn to September. And who could blame him? The 26-year-old hurler piled up 5 wins and 2 losses for the Beavers last month and won the Pacific Coast League 2 Pitcher of the Month award for his efforts. May stymied opposing batters on 53 base hits and a .225 batting average. He rang up 29 strikeouts in 63 innings of work, surrendered 8 walks and fashioned a sparkling 2.43 ERA. Presently May has a 13-7 mark in 21 starts with a 2.10 ERA. He has given up 153 hits in 180.1 innings, struck out 87 and issued 17 walks. Opposing clubs have compiled a .224 batting average against him.

Rookie of the Month

Pacific Coast League 2 Names Rookie of Month: Adam Jones is still a bit shy, but then, who could blame the newest Pacific Coast League 2 Rookie of the Month honoree? He hasn't been around the league long enough to fully know the ropes yet, despite the fact that he's putting up veteran-like numbers. In August the Oakland hitter tagged opposing pitching for a .336 average with 37 hits, 4 home runs and 22 RBIs. Jones is hitting .278 this year with 11 home runs, 77 RBIs and 89 runs scored. He has 147 hits in 529 at-bats, 66 walks and a .357 on-base percentage. Jones has played in 135 games.

September AWARDS

Batter of the Month

Salt Lake City's Bradley Chosen PCL2 Batter of the Month: Kyle Bradley battered Pacific Coast League 2 pitchers all September and wound up taking home the Batter of the Month Award. "I've been around Pacific Coast League 2 long enough to know you really have to work hard day in and day out to be able to put up this kind of consistency," the 28-year-old Bradley told reporters. "I put in a lot of work, even on the days I might not take the field, and it's always nice when everything comes together for me like it did this last month." In 26 games, Bradley hit .400 with no home runs, 12 RBIs and scored 17 runs. For the year Bradley is batting .365 with no home runs.

Pitcher of the Month

PCL2's #1 Starter is May: When Mark May takes the mound, a Portland victory is usually the result. That was the the case in September. That's why he was voted the Pacific Coast League 2 Pitcher of the Month. May throttled league hitters the whole month with an impressive 6-0 mark and 1.31 ERA in 6 starts. The Beavers star hurler also rung up 23 strikeouts in 55 innings. To date this season, May has registered 27 starts, 19-7 won-lost mark, 1.91 ERA, 235.1 IP, 110 strikeouts and 21 walks. Opposing teams have hit .215 against him.

Season AWARDS

Batting Title

José Reyes Wins PCL2 Batting Title: After hitting .363 this season, Los Angeles right fielder José Reyes was officially declared the 1919 Pacific Coast League 2 batting titlist by the league office. The 38-year-old star smacked 199 hits in 162 games and added 3 home runs, 78 RBIs and 83 runs to his resume. "What can I say? I had a good year," Reyes said with a smile to reporters after hearing the news. "A little luck didn't hurt either!"

Outstanding Pitcher Award

Oakland Stopper Takes Outstanding Pitcher Award: Stephen Miller of the Oakland Oaks might be an old man, but he can still pitch with the best of them. Today the 37-year-old hurler snagged the Pacific Coast League 2 Outstanding Pitcher Award honors for his outstanding 1919 performance. He posted a 2.09 ERA with 19 wins, 13 losses, 100 strikeouts and 54 walks in 288.2 innings.

Manager of the Year Award

Pacific Coast League 2 Selects Manager of the Year: An outstanding season by the Beavers garnered their manager Andy George the Pacific Coast League 2 Manager of the Year award for 1919. He led Portland to a 109-69 record this year and a first place finish. Even so, George seemed less than thrilled. "I don't give a damn about the award," he growled to reporters, "I just want this team to win championships!"

Gold Glove Awards

PCL2 Gold Glove Award Winners Announced: It's been said that the best offense is a good defense. That's why contending teams are always looking to improve on the defensive side of the game. Keeping runs from scoring is just as good as driving them in. The top fielders have been chosen in the Pacific Coast League 2 for 1919. Here are the Gold Glove Award winners:

- Pitcher: Ron Roberts (Vernon Tigers)
- Catcher: Tom Beach (Salt Lake City Bees)
- First Baseman: Corey Bailey (Vernon Tigers)
- Second Baseman: Steven Crowley (San Francisco Seals)
- Third Baseman: Ken Moore (Oakland Oaks)
- Shortstop: Zander Alexander (Portland Beavers)
- Left Fielder: Kevin Clark (Oakland Oaks)
- Center Fielder: Adam Jones (Oakland Oaks)
- Right Fielder: Melvin McCorry (Vernon Tigers)
